COUNTY OF COOK)

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS
LAW DIVISION

GENERAL ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 20-01

Pursuant to Circuit Court General Administrative Order 2020-1
COVID 19 Emergency Procedures for the Assignment (Courtroom 2005
& 2006), Commercial Calendar Section, Tax Section and Individual
General Calendar

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

Excluding emergency motions, all court dates set by order are continued and reset for approximately 30 days. A court date continuance chart is available in the Law Division/Assignment, Commercial, Tax and Individual Calendar Sections on the Chief Judges Website at:

<http://www.cookcountycourt.org/ABOUTTHECOURT/CountyDepartment/LawDivision.aspx>

Deadlines: All discovery deadlines, completion dates and/or filing dates currently contained in existing case management orders, will be automatically extended to the future 30-day date. New dates for those activities will be set in new case management orders, this excludes orders setting briefing schedules for contested motions. Motions to compel or extend discovery dates are not valid emergency motions, and should not be filed.

Cases Set For Trial: Cases set for trial that have been reset by this order remain set for trial on the day to which they have been rescheduled.

Scheduled Motions: All motions not set by order are stricken and will need to be renoticed and scheduled when normal court resumes. Contested motions set by order will be automatically continued approximately 30 days but the current briefing schedule shall remain in full force and effect.

Emergency Motions: An emergency judge will be available in room 2005 from 9:00 A.M. to 12:00 Noon, Monday through Friday, for presentation of valid emergency motions only.

Please note that the only issues that are considered emergencies are those in which irreparable harm will be caused if not addressed immediately.

No other emergency motions should be filed.

Routine motions are not valid emergency motions.

Scheduling Emergency Motions: Movant will call Chambers telephone for room 2005 at 312-603-6343 and relay the substance of the emergency motion to be presented. The Emergency Judge will review the request to determine if it is a valid emergency. If the motion is not a valid emergency, it will not be heard and the clerk will inform the movant of that decision.

If the motion is a valid emergency, the clerk will inform the movant that the Emergency Judge will hear the motion and direct parties to Courtroom 2005 for hearing.

Based upon volume and changes in circumstances, these procedures may change and any changes will be posted on the Law Division section of the Chief Judges website.

Information contact: listed below is contact information for all sections covered by this order and should be used as the first point of contact for procedural information regarding a case pending on a specific calendar. These numbers will be monitored several times a day and court employees will be promptly responding to voicemails, after consulting with the judge to whom the case is assigned.
